

DECLARATIONS & PROMISES AFTER DELIVERANCE

-Biblical Scriptures for Renewing your mind and staying in Freedom-

After you have received Deliverance from demonic oppression or strongholds, one of the steps to staying in freedom is you will need to stay rooted and grounded in scripture to ensure that gateways or doors do not become reopened that invited demons to have legal rights or access to your life. This is not something you do just once but rather a continual process of renewing your mind, taking thoughts captive, and standing on biblical truth which are the promises of God's word found throughout the scriptures. It's important to know that Inner Healing and Deliverance are integrated together. What does this mean? Deliverance without inner healing and restoration, will simply result to opening up doors for demonic oppression again. That is why so many people stay in repetitive demonic cycles and never achieve real freedom. The soul purpose of deliverance isn't just about receiving relief, but rather restoration. These biblical scriptures will help to reestablish your identity of who you are in Christ.
